

THE RITZ-CARLTON

LAKE TAHOE

Colin Perry General Manager

Colin Perry joined The Ritz-Carlton, Lake Tahoe with more than 20 years of hospitality management experience, including nearly 22 years with various Marriott brands. As a hotel industry veteran, Mr. Perry is responsible for all aspects of operations at the resort, including financial performance, employee and guest engagement, community relationships, partnerships, and talent development.

Prior to joining The Ritz-Carlton, Lake Tahoe, Mr. Perry served as General Manager of Hotel Saskatchewan, Autograph Collection, managed by Marriott, where he led the hotel through a full rebranding and repositioning of the property from an independently managed hotel to a Marriott managed Autograph Collection hotel. During this transition under Perry's leadership, the hotel improved in all key metrics and was awarded "Financial Excellence Marriott Hotels of Canada" and "Best in Class" recognition from their ownership group. A tenured leader with Delta Hotels, his hospitality career began in various Food and Beverage hourly positions, leading to operations as Rooms Division Manager at Delta London Armouries, and followed shortly by a promotion to Director of Operations at Delta Lodge at Kananaskis in Alberta, Canada. Perry's career progressed promptly to two General Manager positions: Delta Whistler Village Suites and Delta Edmonton South Hotel & Conference Centre.

Mr. Perry has participated as an active member of the hospitality industry community by previously serving on numerous boards to represent Marriott Hotels of Canada. Mr. Perry is a graduate of Vancouver Community College and Fanshawe College, where he earned a Food and Beverage Management diploma and Bachelor of Hospitality Administration/Management. He continued his educational pursuits by earning executive leadership certifications from Ryerson University in Toronto, and Cornell University in New York.
